you feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system.

In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or Weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotized, wheedled, or over persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir—Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no appetite, could not sleep, and was practically unfitted for work. Suffered from innumerable boils and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery relieved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also, of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

POWERS' FIGHT FOR LIFE.

With two life sentences reversed and after having been under a death sentence for more than a year before that verdict also was reversed, Caleb Powers, accused of conspiracy to murder William Goebel, made application yesterday to the Scott circuit court of Kentucky to have his case transferred to the United States district court for the Eastern district of Kentucky.

The petition marked another sudden change of far-reaching importance in one of the most dramatic trials in the history of American jurisprudence.

Coincident with the filing of the petition was the appearance of former Governor Richard Yates, of Illinois, and Frank S. Black, of New York, as counsel for Powers.

Powers bases his petition for a transfer of his case to the federal court on the claim that he had been denied, and is now being denied, equal protection of the laws as guaranteed by the fourteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, and on the claim that by the workings of the State courts of Kentucky in his case, that this portion of the fourteenth amendment prohibiting any State from depriving any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, has been violated.

In support of his claim Powers makes the point that the courts refused to recognize a pardon issued in legal form by the governor of Kentucky, and that in all three trials before the Scott circuit court the juries have been solidly packed with Goebel democrats, the political opponents of the defendant, and that under the Kentucky code this selection of democratic juries is not permissible.

The first main clause covering the issue of the pardon is of unusual interest, since there is no provision in the Kentucky statutes preventing the governor from exercising the pardoning power before trial. When Powers was arrested he produced a pardon signed by William S. Taylor as governor and attested by Caleb Powers as secretary of State.

This pardon bore date subsequent to that of the warrant and covered the offense specified in the warrant, an offense on which Powers has been tried three times. Judge Stout called a special term of court for July 10 to pass upon the question as to whether yesterday's petition should be admitted to the court.

Meantime the attorneys for Powers will take the case before the United States circuit court for the Eastern district of Kentucky, which meets next Monday at London, and will ask that the matter of jurisdiction on the transfer of the case from the State to the Federal court be decided. Powers was in court when the mandate of the Kentucky court of appeals ordering a fourth trial of his case was read.

AFRICA FOR THE NEGRO.

"America for the white man, Africa for the negro," said Bishop Turner, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in an address delivered before an educational mass-meeting in the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church, in New York, the other day.

"It is not possible for the negro to attain full manhood rights in this country," said he, "because it is a white man's land; a nation of white institutions, white ideas, white thought. The duty of the negro is, generally speaking, to absorb all the good things America can give him and then return to the country of his forefathers to spread education and light among the black people of the Dark Continent.

"The negro race, like every race in the infancy of civilization, is an imitative race. Colored people may attain great things, but they cannot carry their gifts to the highest consummation in this country. Let the negroes return to Africa and build up the black man's land. It will not be a labor of years. It will take decades and generations and even centuries, but it is the only reasonable solution of the much discussed race problem."

Rev. R. D. Stinson was one of the speakers. He appealed to the negroes of New York to make a greater effort to send their children to higher institutions of learning.

"Get your children away from the corrupting influences of a city of this kind," said he. "If the poor people of the black belt of the South can save their pennies and nickles and dimes and give their children the right sort of education, why cannot you, whose opportunities are larger for making money? It should be the desire of all good people to remove from every community ignorance, sin, vice, viciousness and idleness in every form. There is a large number of men and women of my race who are working day and night to shape the life and character of the colored youth of the land. The real value of my race does not lie in its ability to control stocks, bonds and governments. The closet attention must be given to character building. The responsibilities for educating the youth in schools of this kind should not rest wholly on the shoulders of the better element of the race."

"I Thank The Lord!"

cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I got from Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, 25c.

Strengthening the Nerves.

Self control or nerve force is the great lesson of health and therefore of life itself. To understand how to relax is to understand how to strengthen nerves. Hearty laughter is a source of relaxation, as are also all high thoughts, as those of hope, beauty, trust or love. Relaxation is found in diversion. An occasional outing or holiday is necessary. As there are conscious and unconscious thoughts, there are conscious and unconscious nerve tensions. Women when shopping do not know the very tight grip they give their parcels until, on reaching home, their hands fall relaxed in their laps, and they say they are so tired.—Health Culture.

The Emerald.

An emerald that has no flaw in it is typical of the purest love. Some people say that, as few such stones can be found, purest love is necessarily rare. An emerald was always thought to possess the power of discovering treachery in the shape of alleged friends. The emerald is exceedingly popular in courtships and in marriages. After marriage it is supposed to bring harmony into the household and to further domestic joys in every possible way. To lose an emerald is said to bring business misfortunes and disaster.

A Helpless Woman.

"My wife's the most helpless creature," growled Cadly; "simply can't do anything without bothering me to help her."

"Yes?"

"Yes. Only last night I had to reach up and get a candle off the shelf of the pantry for her so she could go down cellar and bring up a scuttle of coal."—Philadelphia Press.

Disgusted.

Arthur—Weren't you awfully frightened when you saw the burglar in your room? Theodore—I was worse than frightened; I was disgusted. He said if I said a word I was a dead man. Absurd, don't you know. A dead man couldn't talk.—Boston Transcript.

Nothing to Flee From.

Mother—So your little playmate is sick. What is the matter with her? Little Dot—I don't know, but it's something with an awful long name, so I guess it's a real respectable sort of disease. May I go to see her?

Serious Stomach Trouble.

I was troubled with a distress in my stomach, sour stomach and vomiting spells, and can truthfully say that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me.—MRS. T. V. WILLIAMS, Laingsburg, Mich. These tablets are guaranteed to cure every case of stomach trouble of this character. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There Is a Difference.

The difference between Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar and all other Cough Syrup is that it moves the bowels, thus expelling a cold from the system. This relaxes the nervetissues and by its healing effect on the throat and lungs the cough is relieved—cured entirely. Kennedy's is the original Laxative Honey and Tar and contains no opiates. Good alike for young or old. Tastes good. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1905.

THE city democratic committee met last night and fixed upon May 29th as the day upon which the primary election will be held for city officers. It is stated that 1,170 residents have so far paid their capitation tax, and that by the end of the week probably about one hundred more will have done so. Whether all these will qualify themselves otherwise to vote remains to be seen. It is probable that a certain percentage even of those who may be eligible to vote will not take the necessary trouble to cast their ballots. Some of the present occupants of city and State positions have opposition, but as no issues are at stake, it being simply a case where voters will be called upon to choose between applicants, each of whom is worthy, there is no reason why the canvass cannot be conducted in a quiet manner minus the disagreeable features which sometimes mar political contests. While the late constitutional convention may have done things it should not have done and left undone some that should have been done, its action in regard to suffrage is generally commended. The hurrah element has, in a measure, been eliminated, as has been the traffic in voting. Heretofore elections have been fondly anticipated by a certain class as a harvest. They had no personal favorites, but the man who could spend the most money became their temporary champion. A large number of this genus have debarred themselves from suffrage by failing to meet all the constitutional requirements, and heelers, ticketholders, buttonholders, whisky distributors and political wayhayers find themselves out of a job and are spectators at the quiet elections of the present day. Scenes around boothes so common in past years have passed away as horrid dreams and been supplanted by decency and order.

NOT ONLY history but fiction repeats itself. Since the recent death of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee papers throughout the north have been republishing accounts of the surrender of General Lee to General Grant at Appomattox, most of them describing with some minuteness the refusal of Grant to accept Lee's sword which they state was offered. This is all imagination. Gen. Lee never offered his sword to Gen. Grant and this fact is as well known as any in history. General Grant in his "Personal Memoirs," says:

The much talked-of surrendering of Lee's sword and my handing it back, this and much more that has been said about it, is the purest romance. The work sword or sidearms was not mentioned by either of us until I wrote it in the terms. There was no premeditation, and it did not occur to me until the moment I wrote it down. If I had happened to omit it, and General Lee had called my attention to it, I should have put it in the terms precisely as I acceded to the provision about the soldiers retaining their horses.

Some time after the surrender General Lee in talking to a friend in Richmond of the surrender said:

No man could have behaved better than General Grant under the circumstances. He did not touch my sword; the usual custom is for the sword to be received when tendered and then handed back; he did not touch mine.

BARON DE CONSTANT has made some remarks on naval armanent that are pertinent outside of his own country. He insists that instead of being defended, France is being ruined by naval expenditures. The country has been committed to a naval programme that will cost nearly $300,000,000 in the next twelve years. Neither his own country nor Germany nor even England could stand the present scale of naval expenditure. The Minister of Marine made the inevitable response that so long as Germany, Great Britain and the United States were increasing their fleets France could not stop. The naval expenditures of this country are not only far beyond their real needs, but every European country cites them as a reason why it must press forward in the cause of naval expansion.

How to deal with gambling is a matter that has never been satisfactorily settled, owing to the inborn proclivity of the human race to make gains by the "get rich quick process." Mayor Fleischmann, of Cincinnati, has come out squarely in favor of the licensing of gambling as a means of regulating it. He says it is well known that gambling exists and always has existed, and since it cannot be stopped altogether it seems wiser to him that gambling should be duly restricted and licensed.

THERE was both humor and truth in the declaration of Booker T. Washington in his late speech at Hampton Institute that "the way to touch the white man is in his kitchen." With that end in view the speaker strongly insisted that negro women should be so educated as to be the best cooks in the country. The Philadelphia Record adds: "The demand for good cooks always outruns the supply."

HARRY GAZE, of London, author, of a book called "How to Live Forever," is in this country to tell all about it. He says, "Control over the subconscious soul that governs the rebuilding of life is all that is necessary." Perhaps this may be of some assistance to the grand old party in its task of squeezing an income from a deficit.

One of the bids on Ellis Island privileges opened at the Department of Commerce and Labor yesterday is puzzling the officials of the Immigration Bureau. It is the bid of the American Express Co. on the privilege of exchanging the foreign money presented at Ellis Island by the immigrants. All the other bidders exact certain rates of exchange, varying from one-fifth to one per cent. The American Express Co. offers to make the exchange at current Wall street figures free of charge and pay the government $1,200 per annum additional. The bids have not yet been scheduled and the awards will not be made for some days.

Secretary Taft has decided to appoint Paul Charlton, of Nebraska, to the position of law officer of the Insular Bureau which will become vacant when Judge Magoon, the present occupant proceeds to Panama to take up his duties as Governor of the canal zone.

U. S. Minister Allen, at Seoul, Korea, has reported to the State Department that he has at last succeeded in securing the dismissal from office of Paing Han Chun, magistrate of Pengyand. It seems that this individual has been the subject of many complaints from Americans on the ground that he has been extorting money, and oppressing the people.

There is another row on among the South and Central American diplomats who control the Bureau of American republics, over the selection of Wm. C. Wells, of this city, as chief clerk of the Bureau. One of the disappointed candidate has protested against Wells' appointment on the ground that there was no proper civil service examination held of those applying for the position. The result of this protest has been to hold up the confirmation of Wells.

The most important convention of railroad men ever held in America was formally opened here this morning when the Seventh International Railway Congress held its first meeting at the New Willard Hotel. There were present representatives of the railroads of every country in the world in which rail traffic forms any important function in the life of the people. The gathering was one of the most representative ever assembled in this city. The congress is properly an institute, the members of which are governments and railroad companies. European governments which exercise a direct supervision over railroad affairs are represented by high officials, while the operating companies have sent high officers to join in the discussions of the multitudinous problems to be studied for mutual benefit by the five sections into which the congress is divided. This morning's opening meeting was held in the New Willard ball room, and until the closing ceremonies the delegates will not meet again in a body, the sectional meetings forming the major portion of the programme. Vice-President Fairbanks delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the American people. Mr. Arthur Dubois, president of the permanent commission of the congress and director of the railways of Belgium, responded on behalf of the delegates. He was followed by Commissioner H. B. F. Macfarland, of the District of Columbia, who repeated the formal welcome to the national capital which he extended to the delegates at the opening of the American Railway Appliance Exhibit yesterday. Stuyvesant Fish, president of the Illinois Central Railroad, was introduced and in his capacity as president of the American Railway Association spoke for the railroads of the United States in welcoming the congress to its first session in this country. At the conclusion of the speech making, officers were elected to officiate during the sessions of the congress to be held during the coming ten days.

Just before the march to the scaffold he forgave everybody concerned in his conviction and asked forgiveness from all.

Ukase Did Not Include Jews.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—The press dispatches sent out in regard to the ukase issued by the Czar on Easter granting religious liberty to his subjects, have been conflicting on the point as to whether the imperial decree extended to the Jews. It can be stated once for all that the Jews are not included in the provisions of the ukase. The question of granting the Jews greater liberty than they enjoy, at present, is now under consideration here. It is announced that a meeting of the committee of ministers will be held next week to consider the case of the Jews. It is not expected that any decision will be reached, but that a commission will probably be appointed to investigate the question of liberty which it is advisable to grant the Russian Jews.

Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

A. B. Spear, cashier of the closed Citizens' Bank of Oberlin, Ohio, yesterday, in the United States District Court, entered a plea of guilty to one count of the indictment charging him with making false entries in the bank's books and was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. District Attorney Sullivan recommended that all other indictments agasnst Spear, containing 15 counts be nolled. The maximum penalty would have been ten years. It is believed by the government authorities, at Cleveland, Ohio, that the pleading guilty by Spear will have a tendency to weaken any defense which Mrs. Chadwick can make in case she is granted a new trial by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. She is charged jointly no the same indictment with conspiring with Spear to make false entries in the bank's books.

When Mrs. Chadwick was told about Spear's sentence she displayed little emotion and contented herself with remarking, "The poor man. I do not see what else he could have done. He got himself into trouble, but it was through no fault of mine."

She began to cry a little when reminded that she was charged with conspiracy on the same count to which Spear pleaded guilty. She protested tearfully that she was guilty of no conspiracy and innocent of any wrongdoing.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucuous surfaces.

GEN LEE'S FUNERAL.

After another day of a continuous stream of people passing in front of the bier of General Fitzhugh Lee, where the body lay in state in the rotunda of the City Hall, in Richmond, the lid was closed yesterday afternoon and the casket removed to St. Paul's Church last night, in preparation for the impressive funeral today.

Governor Montague is too ill to take any part in the obsequies and Lieutenant Governor Willard represented the Governor at the funeral.

Governor Warfield and staff, of Maryland, arrived in Richmond this morning and were met at the depot by acting Governor Willard and his staff.

The entire 24 companies of the Seventieth and Seventy-first regiments of State troops are expected to arrive in time for the funeral, at 2 o'clock today, and several independent commands will be in line.

Richmond suspended business today after 2 o'clock, the hour of the funeral, even the railroads posting notices that their employes would be free at that hour. Many places of business are draped in mourning.

The committee yesterday afternoon made a place in the line for the colored veterans of the Spanish war. They are instructed to dress in black.

Throughout the day yesterday flowers, cut and in beautiful designs, were received.

Complete arangements was completed yesterday by Col. Charles T. O'Ferrall, chief marshal for the parade. The procession, with the military, veteran, and various memorial organizations, was one the longest and most imposing ever seen in Richmond. It was headed by the band of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, which will play the funeral march composed by Prof. Jacot Reinhardt, of Richmond, at the request of Gen. Lee, made years ago.

Mayor McCarthy, who was designated by the general committee of arrangements to ask the United States authorities at Washington to permit the attendance of the Marine band and the Soldiers' Home band at Hampton, received a reply from Washington officials to the effect that it would be impracticable to have either of the bands at the funeral of General Lee.

A splendid bay stallion will be draped in mourning and led riderless after the caisson bearing the body of Gen. Lee.

Col. George Wayne Anderson commanded the Seventieth Virginia Regiment, with Lieut. Col. William J. Perry of Staunton; Majs. C. Gray Bossieux, of Richmond; Stanley W. Martin, of Danville, and James E. King, of Alexandria.

Col. A. M. Higgins, of Norfolk, commanded the Seventy-first regiment of infantry with Lieut. Col. C. C. Vaughan, jr., of Franklin.

St. Paul's Church was draped for the solemn occasion. Bishop A. M. Randolph conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Beverly Tucker, of Norfolk, and others.

The pallbearers were:

Active—Messrs. W. T. Dabney Barton H. Grundy, and Robert Whittet, from the board of aldermen; Messrs. Gilbert K. Pollock, Robert Le Maurier, and John J. Lynch, from the common council; Messrs. J. B. Poindexter and G. S. Wray, from the Richmond Howitzers; Capt. A. Tyler Brock and Lewis Brander, from the Richmond Light Infantry Blues; Sergt. Norfolk, of Company C, and Sergt. Spence, of Company B, representing the Seventieth regiment of infantry.

The honorary pallbearers were representatives of the Richmond city government; the Confederate Veterans; the U. S. army, &c.

Lieut. George Mason Lee, son of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, arrived in Washington yesterday evening from San Francisco and immediately left for Richmond to attend the funeral services of his father.

Richmond, May 4.—The military pageant attending the obsequies of General Fitzhugh Lee, today, embraced practically all the militia of the State infantry and artillery.

The Seventy-first regiment of Infantry led the parade in the order of its battalions, Colonel A. M. Higgins being the ranking colonel. They was followed by the Seventieth regiment, grouped in battalions, and commanded by Colonel George Wayne Anderson. Then came the Richmond Light Infantry Blues' battalion of two companies, and, following them, the four or five unattached infantry commands. The battalion of artillery followed the infantry, Battery A, the Howitzers and Battery B, the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues.

There was no cavalry command in the procession, notwithstanding the fact that General Lee was eminently a cavalryman, and in that arm of the service spent most of his military life and won his greatest martial renown. There is not a troop in the State, and none was ordered here from Washington.

The formation and movement from St. Paul's Church was as follows:

Chief marshal and aides, escort, State military, veteran organizations, High School boys, Soldiers' Home veterans, clergy in carriages, honorary pallbearers, active pallbearers, caisson with body, family mourners, State officials, city officials, distinguished visitors, memorial associations, Richmond Fire Department, Colored Spanish-American Veteran Association.

Richmond, Va., May 4.—St. Pauls Church was the scene of an immense assemblage of people at one o'clock today, when the funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee took place.

Bishop A. M. Randolph officiated, and assisted by the Rev. Beverly N. Tucker, Rev. Landon R. Mason, Rev. R E. Barnwell. The church will comfortably seat a thousand people, but at least four fold that number sought to gain admission. Out in Grace street, men, women, and children were massed for a distance of a block and down Ninth street. Another great crowd surged restlessly as the services inside the church proceeded.

The scene inside the building was inspiring. In the cleared seat space uniformed soldiers paced with measured tread, their uniform the only touch of color to the otherwise mournful aspect that greeted the eye in every direction.

The church was heavily draped.

Many private residences in the vicinity were draped in black. Hundreds of vehicles that were to bear distinguished visitors, and officials and delegations to Hollywood were parked in Capitol square, and in Grace and Franklin streets, and the waiting soldiers of the Virginia military establishment stretched away to the west for a distance of half a mile.

Every seat in the church was occupied. Flowers in great profusion were banked about the chancel in front of which the casket containing the body of General Lee, rested on a base concealed by black broadcloth. At the outer side of the casket nearest the audience, and at the termination of the main aisle the Confederate battle flag gleamed in flowers. But more striking in its position of prominence, was a great wreath of white elevated on a standard of green. It was four feet in diameter, elevated about six feet, and was made of Easter lilies, white roses, white sweet peas, with a green foil of smilax. This design was sent by the Veteran Cavalry Association, Army of Northern Virginia. A wreath of flowers almost concealed the casket from view.

On the top of the casket was a large wreath of white roses sent by Mrs. Ann Fitzhugh Brown, the last of Gen. Lee's daughters to marry. By request of Mrs. Brown this wreath will be burried with her father.

General Robert E. Lee's pew in the church was marked today by a large wreath of roses.

General Lee's body was wrapped last night in the folds of a Confederate flag and the grave in which he will be lowered is lined with another Confederate flag, the same that draped the sepulcre of President Jefferson before the tomb was sealed.

All trains entering Richmond this morning brought military commands, veteran organizations, delegations and individual admirers and comrades of General Lee, and the procession which left the church en route to Hollywood Cemetery at 2:45 o'clock will rival as a spectacle any military peageant in the history of Virginia military funerals.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., May 4.—The grandest funeral procession that has marched here since the reinterment of Jefferson Davis, is moving now in honor of Fitzhugh Lee's memorial. Ten thousand citizens are in line and the streets are thronged with people. Business private and public is suspended and the whole is city draped in mourning. The funeral is moving off without a hitch and the exercises will probably last till late in the evening.

Nan Patterson.

New York, May 4.—The Nan Patterson trial is over. It ended dramatically at 2:30 this morning, when the jury, which had deliberated for more than 13 hours, announced that they could not agree, and that there was no possibility of their reaching a verdict. Recorder Goff and prosecutor Rand were convinced by the demeanor and action of the twelve men that they spoke the truth and, on motion of Mr. Rand, the jury was discharged.

Miss Patterson fainted dead away when the jury made its announcement. She had held out bravely through the strain, but at the end she collapsed.

While a disagreement meant, perhaps, freedom, it was not what she expected. She looked for acquittal, and what such a verdict meant. But it was not to be, and the blow struck home. Efforts to revive the unfortunate girl in the court room failed and, reclining in a chair, she was carried back to her prison. There the doctor finally restored her and she was put to bed in her cell. Sleep intervened and this morning the girl is better. It is believed the girl will not be tried again. Her counsel, Lawyer Levy, announced this morning that he would make an immediate application for Miss Patterson's release on bail.

The failure of the jury to reach a verdict in the case of Nan Patterson, which resulted in their discharge early this morning by Recorder Goff, after they had reported that they been unable to agree, makes it extremely improbable that the girl will ever be called to the bar again to answer to the charge that she slew Caesar Young.

While the jurors swore themselves to secrecy regarding their deliberation and the ballots, it was learned that the last ballots were 11 for manslaughter and one for acquittal. The lone juror stood out until the end and refused to be brought over.

Nan Patterson had quite recovered this morning from her collapse. She was much depressed and was loath to submit to a short interview this morning.

"I wonder what will happen now?" she said simply. "I am so disappointed at the outcome which I felt would mean absolute acquittal for me, that I don't care now. The torture that I have undergone and tried to bear so patiently has burned into my heart so deep that I hardly believe I can feel pain any more. Will they bring me to another trial? I do not know, I cannot say. What difference can it make except to my dear old father. This much I am assured—that a jury never can be brought together that will convict. That fact may mean life, but I am innocent. I did so want the jury to tell the world of my innocence. I feel that the public, though, believe in my innocence."

Counsel for Nan Patterson will move at the earliest opportunity, that the actress be admitted to a nominal bail, which will not be opposed by the District Attorney's office, it is thought. Later the District Attorney will move to quash the indictment.

Though the jury stood so overwhelmingly for conviction, which would mean a retrial in any other case, the public sentiment and sympathy would swing so strongly to the girl, three times brought to trial, that the purpose of justice itself would be defeated were she called to the bar again. General sentiment is strong that justice has now been done and a retrial would partake of persecution, not prosecution.

Opening of Belmont Park.

New York, May 4.—Belmont Park, the finest race track in America, if not in the world, will be thrown open to the public today. At a cost of nearly $2,000,000, this magnificent plant named in honor of the late August Belmont, father of the present chairman of the Jockey Club, has been under construction for two years. Coincident with the opening of Belmont Park is the running of the first really big handicap of the year, the Metropolitan, worth about $12,000, one mile, for which some of the most famous horses in training will go to the post. Eighteen horses are entered for this prize. The Metropolitan will be run at four o'clock, and a new record is expected by many trainers. The track officials have made accommodations to handle 50,000 people. The other stake event will be the Juvenile for two years old at five furlongs. Newton Bennington's First Water will probably be the favorite, as he has been doing fast work in his trials. Four other well filled events are on the card, including a steeplechase.

Movements of the Fleets.

London, May 4.—The Evening Star says that a cablegram received in London, this morning, from the Straits Settlements states that two of Rear Admiral Nebogatoff's transports, the Mariecham and the Hessenmuller, put into Sabong, on the north coast of the island of Sumatra. The vessels apparently had been in a collision, as their bows were stove in.

London, May 4.—A News agency dispatch from Hong Kong says that an official Chinese report states definitely that the greater portion of the Russian Baltic fleet arrived at Leongsoi Bay, on the south coast of the island of Hainan, on May 1.

St. Petersburg, May 4.—Admiral Rojestvensky, commander of the Russian Baltic fleets, which are relied on by Russia to defeat Admiral Togo and regain the control of the seas, from the Japanese, has written letters to relatives here in which he pictures the condition of his fleet in most gloomy words. He complains that it is impossible for him to fight with the material at his command. The lack of discipline, he says, is appalling. He concludes one letter in these words: "These are the men and the ships with which I am expected to face the powerful Japanese fleet. It is a hopeless enterprise and nothing but a miracle can save us from annihilation." The government strongly resents the publication of the letters and has reprimanded Admiral Rojestvensky for his indiscretion in writing even to his relatives.

London, May 4.—The correspondent of the Star at Singapore wires that a Russian fleet is reported two hundred miles north of Singapore this morning. Presumably the squadron is that of Rear Admiral Nebogatoff. If the vessels are really those under the command of Nebogatoff the junior Russian commander has effected a passage from the Indian ocean into the China Sea, and is probably on his way northward to join Admiral Rodjestvensky.

Singapore, May 4.—A steamer which has just arrived here reports that Rear Admiral Nebogatoff's fleet consisting of four battleships, two cruisers, four colliers and a hospital ship was sighted off Jugra, in the Strait of Malacca, at 10 o'clock this morning. It is expected that the fleet will pass Singapore at midnight.

Conditions in Warsaw.

Warsaw, May 4.—The city today is in mourning for the victims of the soldiers wrath on Monday, when the troops fired on the populace killing scores. The bodies of these victims were removed last night, secretly, in vans to Brudno cemetery by the authorities and buried, in order to avoid any demonstration. Today a great crowd gathered at the cemetery. Signs of mourning are exhibited all over the city and many tributes of respect to the memory of the "martyrs" have been paid. The strike at the printing offices has been resumed, and none of the papers has appeared. At noon the shops were all closed. The theatres have been forbidden to give performances tonight.

Disturbances have begun in the Wola district. Workmen there stopped the tramcars and held up passing cabs. Cossacks were called out to quell them, and in a fight which occurred while the troops were dispersing the crowds, one Cossack was wounded. Reports show that disorders are threatened in other sections.

Railroad Collision.

New York, May 4.—A New York Central passenger train and a passenger train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad collided shortly before noon, at 118th street and Webster avenue, near Bedford Park. Ambulance calls were sent in to the nearest hospitals. At noon Inspector McCluskey telephoned to police headquarters that only two or three persons had been injured in the collision.

A telephone message from Fordham says that only one person was injured in the wreck. He is Peter O'Donnell, residing at No. 352 east 21st street, New York city. He is suffering from contusions about the head, bruises and shock.

New York, May 4.—Through the carelessness of an employe, who left a switch open, a rear-end collision occurred at the Bedford Park station of the New York Central Railroad at 11:15 a. m. today. The North Adams express, bound from Chatham, N. Y., while running 25 miles an hour, crashed into the rear end of a New York, New Haven & Hartford local, which was standing at the station. The rear car of the local was a baggage car and wrs badly damaged. A newsboy was thrown with such violance that he sustained painful scalp wounds. The engineer of the express, when he saw that a collision was unavoidable, jumped and sustained serious injury. None of the passengers were hurt.

Damage by Broken Dam.

San Francisco, May 4.—Dispatches from Holbrook, Arizona, show that one person, a Mexican, was drowned and hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property destroyed by the waters of St. John's dam, which broke yesterday afternoon. At Holbrook, 70 miles below the dam, a wall of water, twenty feet high, inundated houses and public building. Ruined structures were deserted early in the day, warning having been sent to the people from up the river. Hundreds of cattle were drowned. Hundreds of families are homeless, and according to advices from St. Johns, Arizona, seven miles below the dam, that village is practically destroyed, and it is feared many lives were lost.

Cossacks Killed.

Berlin, May 4.—A dispatch received here from St. Petersburg says that the police seized a revolutionary leader in the streets at Libau. The prisoner was started toward the prison under a guard of twelve Cossacks, when his comrades came to his rescue and made a violent attack on the soldiers. A sharp encounter followed, in which the entire guard of Cossacks was either killed or injured. The captive was liberated and escaped together with all his friends.

School Superintendents.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, May 4.—Eighty-five school superintendents have been elected and the list will be nearly completed tonight. There has been no consolidation of Alexandria county. J. P. Baldwin defeated J. E. Clements easily for superintendent of Alexandria county.

The Chicago Strike.

Chicago, May 4.—Governor Deneen's office at Springfield is besieged by representatives of labor organizations and employers of Chicago, one faction urging him to send troops into the city to quell disorder arising from the teamsters' strike, and the other body beseeching him to keep out of the fray all semblance of military force. Mayor Dunne has not asked for outside aid, and Chief O'Neill say he has not yet exhausted his strength. Sheriff Barrett and his deputies have not been called on.

A spread of the strike to several firms is expected today. All of them have announced that they will try to make deliveries to concerns affected by the strike and a walkout of drivers is expected to follow.

Some rioting was done last night, during which several people were injured, one fatally.

More new policemen will be sworn in today. Chief O'Neill announces that 2,000 men are now on strike duty.

A riot call this morning summoned the police to Nineteenth and Archer avenue, the historic Archey Road of the Dooley stories. A man, the police were told, had been driven into a building by negroes. They besieged the building and threatened to kill the fugitive. A patrol wagon loaded with police, rushed to the scene. A big development of the strike was the declaration of the employers that they would send out 1,100 wagons today. This would be an increase of 500 over yesterday.

There were scenes of great activity at all the barns where strike breakers are assembled and the police were manoeuvred to get out the extra wagons. The two firms were caught in the strike net this morning.

A committee of employers comprising 12 representatives of the largest business interests in the city departed shortly after noon for Springfield, to ask Governor Deneen to call out the national guard.

Charles Riebling on his way to work early this morning was attacked and probably fatally injured by strike breakers near the barns of the Employers' Teaming Company.

The riot was one of the worst of the strike and speedily got beyond the control of the policemen on duty, necessitating the sending in of a riot call. Joseph Lang, boss at the union barn, and several of his men were on the way to work when they were set upon by crowd of strike breakers assembled at the Employers' Teaming Company barn. Blows were followed by an exchange of revolver shots. The only casualty was the wounding of Hansberry. Greatly outnumered the union men fled pursued by the strike breakers. The latter during the pursuit encountered Riebling, and struck him down.

In a fight among non-union teamsters at the non-union headquarters, Adooph Schmidt was severly beaten. Officials of the Employers Association, are preparing to prefer charges against two city policemen whom they will accuse of holding strike breaker Curry while he was slugged Tuesday afternoon. It is also claimed that a city fireman was one of the men who did the slugging.

Otis Keith, a strike breaker, was horsewipped by a mob and in attempting to escape, was run down by a trolley car, and badly hurt.

Russia Purchasing Ships.

Glasgow, May 4.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Herald confirms the purchase by Russia of the Chilian and Argentine navies. The vessels secured from the Argentine Republic number three battleships, and seven cruisers. The correspondent adds that Russia is dispatching ships for South America carrying men and stores for the new vessels. According to the reports in St. Petersburg, Charles M. Schwab and Charles R. Flint, of New York, were the agents through which the sale of the South American vessels was made.

King Edward Leaves for London.

Paris, May 4.—King Edward left Paris for London at 11:15 this morning in a special train. M. Delcasse, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, met the king at the station and bade him farewell. The Baroness Rothschild presented a bouquet to His Majesty, who placed a flower in his buttonhole and gave the baroness his hand to kiss.

Cossacks and Japanese Clash.

St. Petersburg, May 1.—General Linevitch, Russian commander-in-chief, reports that on Monday a regiment of Cossacks suddenly discovered a squadron of Japanese and attacked the enemy. One Japanese officer and scores of dragoons were killed and eleven prisoners were captured.

Letter to Geo. H. Rucker,

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: "Three-quarter paint" is a good phrase for the best outside of Devoe.

Devoe is the standard; mark it 100. The next-best—there are several not far apart—are three-quarter paints; you may mark them 75 to Devoe's 100.

The bulk of the paints in market are 40 or 50 or 60; a few are better than 60; a few are worse than 40.

How do they act? They cover from one to three-quarters as much as Devoe; and they last from one to three-quarters as long as Devoe.

What are they worth? The same rule don't hold; it costs more to put-on some paints than they are worth; they are not worth anything; the "put-on" costs two or three times as much as the paint.

Yours truly

Best Cough Medicine for Children.

When you buy a cough medicine for small children you want one in which you can place implicit confidence. You want one that not only relieves but cures. You want one that is unquestionably harmless. You want one that is pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets all of these conditions. There is nothing so good for the coughs and colds incident to childhood. It is also a certain preventive and cure for croup, and there is no danger whatever from whooping cough when it is given. It has been used in many epidemics of that disease with perfect success. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The New Highway Bridge.

The new highway bridge, building over the Potomac about 1,400 feet northwest of the old Long bridge, is now estimated to be three fourths finished. It is also estimated that the bridge will be opened to traffic some time in September. The masonry work, which consists mostly of the piers, is practically done. The only remaining work to be done in this line is the building of one whole pier and part of another. The most of the steel that is shortly to be put in place on the bridge is already on the ground, and most of the false work between the piers is ready for the receipt of the steel. The approach to the bridge on the Washington side has been completed all but for the paving; the building of the approach on the Virginia side has just been commenced, the contract having been awarded a few days ago. The new bridge is 666 feet longer than the old Long bridge and will be entirely different in one respect from the old structure, not having any wood used in its construction. One distinctly new feature in the new bridge over other bridges in this vicinity will be the electric draw. The draw will be operated by electricity furnished by the car line. For the prevention of accidents the draw has been so constructed that it will be impossible to move the draw before the safety gates are closed.

Death of Mr. Lunt.

Mr. J. D. H. Lunt, whose critical illness had been mentioned in the Gazette, died at his home on Columbus street at an early hour this morning. The deceased leaves a widow and one child. He was a son of the late Samuel Lunt, who died over a half century ago. About eleven years ago Mr. Lunt received a stroke of paralysis, from the effects of which he never fully recovered. During the past winter he contracted grip and later serious organic troubles developed, since which time his condition had been critical. The deceased was for a long time one of Alexandria's most prominent and energetic business men. In early manhood he conducted a drug store at the northeast corner of King and Washington streets. Eleven years ago he was appointed City Treasurer in place of Mr. M. B. Harlow who had resigned the position. He was later paralyzed and was obliged to relinquish the office. Recently he had been identified with his brother, Mr. Samuel H. Lunt, in the preparation of a standard medicine. The deceased was a popular gentleman, well-known throughout the entire community, and his death is a source of sincere regret to all who knew him.

Wedding.

Grace Church was last night the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Bertha L. Pulman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Pulman, became the bride of Mr. Geo. W. Francis. The ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. Edgar Carpenter. The bride wore net and lace over taffeta and a long tulle veil gracefully attached to the hair with a wreath of lilies of the valley, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Susie Pulman, as maid of honor, wearing white mull over pink taffeta, and carrying white carnations. The bridesmaids were Miss Louise Miller, of Brooklyn; Miss Mary Disney, of Washington; Miss Mabel Hunter, of Fairfax, and Miss Mary Nagel, of this city. They wore white organdie and carried pink carnations. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Harvey Francis, and the ushers were Messrs. J. B. Upperman and Wm. Dunnington, of Washington, and Samuel Pitts, Floyd Saunders and Wm. Allen, of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Francis left for a trip to Jacksonville, Fla., and Savannah, Ga. They will be at home to their friends after June 1st, at 411 south St. Asaph street.

Alexandria's Tribute.

As has been stated, the City Hall and Corporation Court House buildings have been draped in mourning as a mark of respect to the memory of the late General Fitzhugh Lee. The city offices were closed from 1 o'clock this evening. While the funeral was in progress the bells of the city were tolled. The public schools were closed this evening as a mark of respect to the deceased general. A number of citizens and several city officials went to Richmond for the purpose of attending the funeral.

About sixty members of the Alexandria Light Infrantry, under command of Capt. P. J. Murphy, First Lieut. W. W. Demaine, and Second Lieut. Robey, left last evening for Richmond to attend the funeral. The company will return home tonight. Several members of Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, left for Richmond yesterday, and a number of others this morning.

MEETING OF COMMITTEE.

Primary Election for City Officers Fixed for Monday, May 29.

An adjourned meeting of the city democratic committee was held last night at the Hotel Fleischmann. Mr. Charles Bendheim, the chairman, presided, and Messrs. Arthur Davis (proxy for Wm. B. Dobie), G. E Price, R. T. Cook (secretary), George L. Simpson and Oscar F. Carter were present.

After the committee had been called to order it was stated that the meeting had been held for the purpose of fixing a day for the primary election and to hear the views of the candidates concerning the date for holding the same.

Mr. John S. Beach suggested that Tuesday, the 23rd instant, would be a convenient day, as it preceded the Confederate Memorial and United States Decoration Days.

Mr. Edgar F. Thompson asked if there was any law providing for holding the primary in May.

Chairman Bendheim stated that there was not. It was the purpose of the committee to ascertain what day would suit a majority of the candidates. The committee had no preference.

Mr. Thompson said he could not adopt Mr. Beach's suggestion, whereupon the latter withdrew it.

Mr. Thompson then asked if the second Tuesday in June would suit a majority of the candidates.

Mr. P. J. Gorman said he had no objection to any time previous to June, but at the beginning of that month he would be kept busy and would have no time to make his canvass. If the primary could not be held in May he would prefer to have it in August or September. He preferred May 23, however.

Mr. Thompson said that would suit him.

Mr. S. G. Brent advocated an early primary, but said he deferred to those candidates who had opposition.

Mr. Beach said should an early primary be held the candidates for city positions would avoid the State issues which will be in evidence later on.

Committeeman Simpson moved that the primary be held May 30, but when reminded that that would be Decoration Day, suggested May 29.

Committeeman Carter wanted a majority of the candidates to fix the day.

Mr. Thompson said that day would suit him.

Mr. George Bradley favored May 23.

After further colloquy Committeeman Simpson took a vote of the candidates as to whether the election should be held on May 29 or June 5, and there was a unanimous vote in favor of May 29.

The committee then fixed that day for the primary.

There will be another meeting of the committee on the 17th instant, at which time the assessments will be made against the candidates and the ticket closed, all candidates being required to hand their names to the secretary by that time.

All the candidates were present last night except Mr. J. E. King, who will enter the field for Auditor. The following have so far announced themselves:

For clerk of courts, John S. Beach, the incumbent, and Laurence Stabler; for collector of taxes P. F. Gorman, the incumbent, and Edgar F. Thompson; for corporation attorney, R. D. Brumbach and S. P. Fisher; for city auditor, E. F. (Sam) Price, the incumbent William A. Moore, sr., and James E. King; for clerk of gas, John B. Waller, the incumbent; Carter H. Smith, and George W. Bradley; for Commonwealth's Attorney, S. G. Brent, the incumbent; for city treasurer, Thomas W. Robinson, the incumbent; for commissioner of revenue, Charles H. Callahan, the incumbent, and for city sergeant, Robert H. Cox, the incumbent.

River Notes.

The old steamer Kent, which has been lying at Reardon's wharf at this port for the past year, has been stripped of all her life boats and rafts and other fittings, which have been carried to Washington by the company which owns the steamer. The last service performed by the Kent was on a route to the lower river from this city.

The schooner Sidonia Curley has arrived from the lower river with lumber to Aitcherson & Bro.

The steamer General J. A. Dumont did not leave Baltimore yesterday, as had been announced. She is expected to start for this port on Saturday and will go on the Glymont route Monday.

New Poolroom Opened.

The "Maryland Telegraph Company" opened yesterday for business at Kenilworth, Md. The principal activity of the company was the selling of telegraphic money orders on horses now running at the Jamaica race track, New York, and the race tracks at St. Louis. The results of each race were given within a few moments after the running of the races, and those who were fortunate enough to pick the winners secured money orders, which the company cashed. The only officers of the company thus far known are Arthur Wall, president, and F. W. Eskridge, secretary. The charter for the company was secured in Richmond last week.

Struck by a Train.

The left wheel was knocked from a cart on the east side of Fayette street, between King and Prince, yesterday evening, by a north bound freight train. According to the gatekeeper's statement, the engine was a square north of the scene of the accident when the horse attached to the cart forced it against the train. Another version is to the effect that the cylinder of the engine struck the cart.

The Nan Patterson Case.

Having failed to reach a verdict and declaring that they were hopelessly disagreed, the jury in the case of Nan Patterson, tried for the third time on the charge of murdering Caesar Young, was formally discharge at 2.20 o'clock this morning. At 1:30 o'clock the jury was called into court by Recorder Young. When the men were in their places and the court officials had all arrived the recorder asked why the defendant had not been brought into court. A deputy sheriff replied that she had been feeling ill, and had retired, but was then being dressed. After a wait of twelve minutes Miss Patterson appeared looking pale and in a highly nervous state.

"Gentlemen, have you been able to reach an agreement?" asked the recorder of the jury.

"No, sir," replied the foreman.

"Is there any question of law or of evidence in which I can instruct you? Is there any way in which the court can help you?"

The foreman looked for an instant at his fellow-members of the jury, then turned to the recorder and said:

"No, sir, I don't believe you can help us."

"Then you will will retire to consider the matter."

The jury filed out and the courtroom was cleared. Recorder Goff remained in his chamber ready to receive a verdict rendered or to further instruct the jury. At 2:20 the foreman reported a hopeless disagreement and the jury was discharged.

The jury was reported at 8:40 at night, when they went to supper, to stand seven for conviction to five for acquittal on the first degree murder charge.

Alarm Clock and Thief.

When "Patsy" Coperito of New York bought an alarm clock the other day, the dealer assured him that he had the loudest thing in the city, and a certain man who tried to enter "Patsy's" saloon, at No. 2,201 1st. avenue, will back up the dealer's assertions. When Patrolman Hutchinson, of the east 104th street station, heard the harsh sound of the alarm, he was not surprised, for people get up at about 3 o'clock on his beat. When he heard the clock sounding from the top of the transom over the door of the saloon he became suspicious, for even 1st avenue "drunks" do not go to sleep in a transom. Further investigation showed the sounds coming from the pocket of a young fellow who was stuck half way through. Hutchinson waited beneath the transom, and when the man dropped caught him easily on the fly and marched him around to the station. There a friend of the prisoner rushed up to tell him to "keep a stiff upper lip," and was himself gathered in. The first prisoner, William Studley had two alarm clocks on him one of which was still ringing, two quarts of whiskey under his coat and a large amount under his "belt" about fifty cigars and a small sum of money. His friend, who had regretted that he could not spend the night in the cell with him, and who had been accomodated by the patrolman, said he was William Barkdale. Both men modestly refused to say where they lived. Magistrate Breen held Studley in $1,500 for trial but let Barkdale go, who no longer expressed a wish to share a cell with his friend.

Justus Stort, a well-known resident of Quakertown, Pa., answered an advertisement of a Philadelphia woman who wanted a position as housekeeper, and she came to him, liked the place and in six days they had arranged for last Monday's marriage.

Charges Against Officials.

Attorney Nathaniel T. Green, of Norfolk, yesterday served notice on Treasurer S. W. Lyons, of Norfolk county, that as counsel for a number of citizens of the county he would petition Judge W. N. Portlock, of the Circuit Court, to remove Treasurer Lyons for misfeasance and malfeasance in office.

In the notice served on Treasurer Lyons yesterday evening by a deputy sheriff it is alleged that during the present year the treasurer has actively and for political purposes obstructed the payment of poll taxes by certain citizens politically opposed to him, and it is also alleged that he has during that time facilitated in every way possible the payment of poll taxes by citizens of his political faith. It is also alleged that the treasurer has refused to received poll taxes tendered by his political opponents, and the notice also avers that the treasurer has placed in the hands of deputy treasurers, tax receipts of citizens who reside many miles from the deputy treasurers, this state of affairs, so it is claimed, being particularly applicable to Washington district, a district which the charges state is composed of voters politically opposed to the treasurer.

Charges have also been prepared by Attorney Green against Commissioner of the Revenue Nicholas, of the Second district of Norfolk county, but have not as yet been served by county officers, in whose hands they were placed late yesterday afternoon for service.

The charges are, in part, the direct result of the bitter factional feud between the straight out democrats and the fusionists. The respondents, it is said, were supported by the fusion faction when they were elected to office.

After German Tobacco Trade.

Berlin, May 4.—The American tobacco trust is preparing to make an aggressive fight to capture the tobbacco trade of Germany, and this has caused a great deal of apprehension on the part of the German tobacco firms, which are considering plans to offset the attack of the foreign invader. As a preliminary step in its plan to capture the trade the tobacco trust has purchased Josetti's cigarette factory. It is also extending its operations in other ways and apparently is determined to wage an aggressive fight for business. German tobacco concerns look upon the invasion of their home field with anything but favor. The German association of tobacco dealers has called a conference to discuss means of combating the trust. The proposal has been made to boycott all trust brands of tobacco, cigars and cigarettes, and this plan will probably be carried out.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 4.—The stock market opened unsettled. New York Central gained a point. There was fresh pressure on Consolidated Gas, which sold off 2 per cent. Tennessee Coal and Iron lost 2 per cent. on light dealings. St. Paul fell 1½. Reading sold off ½ per cent. U. S. Steel stocks were relatively steady. Union Pacific gained ¼ on 6,000 shares. The market this morning was swayed by a number of bearish influences on special stocks. There was more commission house liquidation, due to the break just before the close. Brokers often handling Gates orders seemed to be making strenuous efforts to force down with letting go of their stock. London bought 20,000 shares in the first half hour. The market was weak at noon, with liquidation in progress.

Waiting Upon His Bride.

Two hundred years ago it was a custom very general in England for the bridegroom to wait upon his bride on their wedding day. The following extract from John Shebbeare's "Matrimony," a book published in the middle of the eighteenth century, testifies to this and refers to the popular superstition about it: "The dinner being served, Sir Oliver was the gayest man in the company. The bridegroom and bride sitting by the side of each other, the old gentleman observed: 'Ods-heart, ods-heart! What, dine with the bride the first day! A fine bridegroom; a fine bridegroom! It was the fashion when I was married to stand behind the bride's chair with a napkin and serve her. Serve her today; she'll serve you always after.'"

The Perspective of Light.

Velasquez recognized that light is elastic and illuminates the air; hence he was the first to discover a new kind of perspective. Men long ago had learned to make lines vanish from the eye, to make the figures diminish in size and shape as they recede from the front and to explain the distance by contrasts of light and shade. But he discovered the perspective of light. By the most delicate rendering of the quantity of light reflected from each and every part of the room and the figures and objects in it he has given to the latter the reality of form and to the room its hollowness, and distance.—St. Nicholas.

New Caledonia.

Until 1853 New Caledonia was a sort of no man's land. Then both England and France decided to annex it, and orders came to two warships to proceed thither at once. They started the same day. The English captain had heard of the reefs that surround the island, and he was cautious. The Frenchman went ahead without regard for the reefs. When the British captain arrived he saw the tricolor flying from a hill, and he was invited to come in and lunch on French soil.

The Mexican Letter Writer.

As many of the lower classes in the City of Mexico can neither read nor write, the Mexican letter writer does a thriving business. He writes letters of all kinds—love letters, begging letters—it matters little to him, so that he is paid for his work. These men are found in the Plaza of Santo Domingo, a sort of market place, where second-hand articles are for sale.

His Discovery.

City Chap (back from a visit to the farm)—You know I thought I had a cinch when the hired man told me to milk the cow that didn't have any horns. Friend—Wasn't it? City Chap—No! It isn't the horns that create a disturbance when a greenhorn is milking. It's the hind legs!—Detroit Free Press.

Hit the Old Man There.

"Can you support my daughter in the style to which she has been accustomed?"

"Perhaps not, but I can support her in the style to which her mother was accustomed during her early married life."—Life.

He Still Wonders.

Finnegan—Oh, yis, Oi can understhand how thim astronomers can calkilate th' distance av a shtarr, its weight and dinsity and color and all that, but th' thing thot gets me is how they know its name.—Puck.

The Sweet Telling.

Aunt Hannah—Have you told any one of your engagement to Mr. Sweeter? Edith—No; I haven't told a soul—except Bessie Miller, who thought he was going to ask her.

Man's Reasonableness

is often as great as women's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican," of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife for female trouble, "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick she could hardly leave her bed, and five [5] physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters she was perfectly cured and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, price 50c.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Strictly Genuine.

Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following recently appeared in the Aitcheson (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well-known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita and Kiowa, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrific pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others who were also cured." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. F. Creighton, 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick streets.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with Piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make Piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co.
